Rainbow Trust Children's Charity supports families who have a child who is very unwell. Life is very hard for these families, but with the support of Rainbow Trust, families are better able to cope and can face the future whatever it may hold.

Rainbow Trust is the only national organisation to provide community-based support direct to families wherever, whenever and however they need it. While the child may be receiving medical support, Rainbow Trust ensures that the family receives emotional support too during these hard times. This might be through taking a family to hospital, reassuring and supporting family members over the Rainbow Trust helpline, or helping in day to day tasks which would otherwise be impossible. rainbowtrust.org.uk

Tinies is a leading childcare specialist owned by My Family Care, with over 30 years' experience helping families, nurseries and other childcare settings find the right childcare professionals to suit their needs; from nannies to maternity nannies, nursery staff to event nannies and everything in-between. For those hiring a nanny themselves, we provide Nanny Screening services which include Nanny CRB Checks, reference checking and provision of employment contracts. tinies.com
